

Please do not expand the service of LPFM stations. These stations may take priority over K-LOVE, which is an important community asset. I have been a listener to this station for 8 years, and have found it to be one of the very few positive things on the airwaves today. We have enough potential negativity being thrown at us in our lives; so please do not cripple the chance for the one positive station to reach people in America.